Subject: RE: The University of Aberdeen's Policy of Apartheid: Complaint Against the MPS for Obstruction

To: adriennegayethompson@gmail.com

Dear Ms Thompson

Having received your complaint below, I have reviewed the contents and believe this is an identical complaint, to QU/1730/14, which you submitted to us in September 2014. You were asked by one of my colleagues to provide further details by 06/10/2014, to which she received no response.

You have named officers that were involved but I have not got any details about their conduct and the incident in relation to this matter.

Include details of:

What was said and done

Where the incident took place

When the incident took place

If there was any damage or injury

Any other people who witnessed the incident

Details of any witness

Please respond to DPSMailbox-.CST@met.pnn.police.uk by the 20th April 2015.

Kind regards

Geri Brownrigg | Band D | Complaint Support Team (CST) | Directorate of Professional Standards | MPS

Gentlemen:

I have attached a copy of my complaint "mps-25.march.2015.pdf" filed yesterday with the Metropolitan Police Service through their online complaints form at <<https://secure.met.police.uk/complaints>>.

A copy of the complaint is also available online at:
<<http://www.abertheid.info/uk-authorities/scotland-yard/2014/mps-25.march.2015.pdf>>

Needless to say, I expect the Metropolitan Police Service to address the matter immediately.

As you can see from the screenshot "cant-send-mps-email2.png" I was unable to send the message from agt@codeartnow.com despite many attempts over a couple of hours. Please reply to <agt@codeartnow.com>.

Sincerely
Adrienne G. Thompson
